The 9th Pilton Pantomime

Welcome to the 2005 Pilton Pantomime!

Last year our production "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves" together with the Wednesday Night Quiz here at the Chichester Arms, managed to raise about four and a half thousand pounds for various local charities. This year our nominated charities are again mostly locally based, with the exception of the Tsunami Appeal. We hope to beat our record breaking total from last year and with your support we think we can!

There is always a long list of people we would like to thank for the outstanding help we receive in putting the Panto together. Amongst those, a special thank you must go to Albert Linaere for the wardrobe, Ken Gaunt & Furnfix for scenery and props, Ian Brass for supplying the stage, W Howard for technical assistance and to Dave Hendy for all matters magical!

Also, this is the first year of Pantomime for Josie Burkett, the Landlady of the Chichester Arms, and we would like to take this opportunity to thank her for her good natured support and patience during rehearsals.

THANK YOU EVERYONE!
