The 2011 Pilton Pantomime

Welcome to the 2011 Pilton Pantomime.

Last year's production 'The Hunchback of Notre Dame' managed to raise several thousand pounds for local charities. This year we are keeping the nominated charities local in order to benefit local people. Reflecting this "Keep It Local" theme this year's panto has been written locally.

There is always a long list of people we would like to thank for the outstanding help we receive in putting the Panto together. Amongst those, a special thank you must go to Albert Linacre, Carol Smith and Creative Costumes of Pottington for the wardrobe, Ken Gaunt and Furnfix for the scenery and large props and Carol and Alan Smith for the smaller props. Tim Saunders has once again overseen the painting of our beautiful scenery to bring the Pond panto to life. Many thanks also need to go to the The Reform Inn for their patience and support through our many rehearsals. Thank you to Pilton Hall for hosting us and thanks also to the Pilton Dance Academy who are making a welcome come-back to the panto after a few years of absence.

Thanks must go to Hamish Patrick who has given a massive amount of time and help to this production. We are all volunteers and the process from start to finish is just under 6 months.

Thank you everyone!
